it's okay to miss home

Dear Friends,

Have you ever missed home because of a familiar smell, a favourite dish, or a meal you used to share with someone you love?

This little book brings together five recipes and five stories from international students who joined The Christmas Table cooking workshop.

Each team received a Mystery Box filled with unexpected ingredients and created a dish inspired by their culture, their memories, and their imagination.

These are not traditional recipes. They are new creations made with teamwork, laughter, and a little bit of home.

RECIPE 01 · ROLLING PANDAS

Tango on the Beach

IN THE MYSTERY BOX

MANGO · CHEESE · RICE PAPER

Story Corner

Hi guys!!!! We are Rolling Pandas, we YOLOed our way through the table, had an absolute blast, and made every moment count! No regrets, just good vibes and great memories!!!

When we opened our Mystery Box, we couldn't stop laughing.
“Mango, cheese, and rice paper? What are we supposed to make with these?”
We decided to try making summer rolls, even though none of us had ever combined these ingredients before.

Our first few rolls completely fell apart, and we made such a mess trying to wrap everything together. But after a lot of laughter and teamwork, we finally created something colourful and surprisingly delicious.

They weren't anything like the traditional rolls we knew, but that made them even more special. We came here to make food, but we ended up making memories together.

A LITTLE MEMORY

Sometimes, the best recipes begin with a mistake and end with laughter

Ingredients

- 4 sheets rice paper
- 1 ripe mango
- ½ cucumber
- 2 slices cheese
- 2 eggs
- Fresh mint leaves

How to make

1. Cook the eggs and slice them
2. Peel and slice the mango and cucumber
3. Soften the rice paper in warm water
4. Place the ingredients on the rice paper and roll gently
5. Serve with your favourite dipping sauce.

RECIPE 02 · KONICHIWA

Berry Onigiri

IN THE MYSTERY BOX

STRAWBERRIES · AVOCADO · RICE

Story Corner

Konnichiwa, everyone!!! We honestly had no idea what to do when we saw strawberries, avocado, and rice in our mystery box.
“Strawberries in onigiri? Are we really doing this?” Well, apparently, we were!

We started experimenting with different fillings, but shaping the rice turned out to be harder than we expected. Some looked like snowballs, while others completely fell apart.

Yuki showed the team how their mum used to shape onigiri back home, and suddenly, we were all learning something new. Our onigiri might not have looked perfect, but we were pretty proud of them.
Who knew a few strange ingredients could bring us so much laughter and a little feeling of home?

A LITTLE MEMORY

It wasn't a traditional onigiri, but it became a new memory for us

Ingredients

- 2½ cups uncooked Japanese short-grain rice
- 10 strawberries
- 2 avocados
- 5 sheets nori seaweed
- 2 tsp sesame seeds
- A pinch of salt

How to make

1. Cook the rice and let it cool slightly.
2. Mash the avocado and mix with a little salt.
3. Slice the strawberries into small pieces.
4. Shape the rice into balls or triangles, adding the fillings and wrapping with nori.
5. Sprinkle sesame seeds on top.

RECIPE 03 · CHESSY CREW

Cheesy Crunch

IN THE MYSTERY BOX

KIMCHI · POTATOES · CORN · FLOUR · MOZZARELLA

Story Corner

We were so relieved when we found kimchi in our mystery box. At least we recognised something! But then we discovered potatoes, corn, flour, and mozzarella.

After a little brainstorming, we decided to make a cheesy kimchi potato pancake. Everything was going great until we tried to flip it. The cheese started spilling everywhere, and our beautiful pancake nearly turned into a disaster!

We couldn't stop laughing, but somehow, we managed to save it. When we finally took our first bite, we were genuinely surprised by how good it tasted. It wasn't the perfect dish, but cooking, laughing, and sharing it made the evening feel a little more like home.

We're the Chessy Crew! We came, we cooked, we cheesed it up!

A LITTLE MEMORY

For a moment, the kitchen felt like home

Ingredients

- 1¼ cups chopped kimchi
- 5 medium potatoes
- 1¼ cups shredded mozzarella
- ⅔ cup sweet corn
- ½ cup all-purpose flour
- 3 eggs
- Cooking oil

How to make

1. Grate the potatoes and squeeze out excess water
2. Mix potatoes, kimchi, corn, flour and eggs in a bowl
3. Add shredded mozzarella and mix well
4. Heat oil in a pan, then cook the mixture until golden and crispy on both sides
5. Cut into pieces and serve warm

RECIPE 04 · SQUAD

Coco-Pumpkin

IN THE MYSTERY BOX

PUMPKIN · MUSHROOMS · COCONUT MILK

Story Corner

Co to the co to the pump to the kin, that's our dish.

We thought making pasta would be easy. Then we opened our mystery box. Pumpkin, mushrooms, coconut milk, and lemon?
“Coconut milk in pasta? Seriously?”
We weren't convinced, but we decided to give it a try anyway. At first, we had no idea whether the flavours would work together. We kept tasting the sauce, adding a little of this and a little of that. To our surprise, it turned out creamy, slightly sweet, and actually really delicious!

We joked that an Italian grandmother might be shocked by our creation. It definitely wasn't a traditional Italian recipe, but it became our own little Christmas memory.

A LITTLE MEMORY

Marco said his grandmother might be shocked, but he would still eat it again

Ingredients

- 500g spaghetti
- 500g pumpkin
- 250g mushrooms
- 375ml coconut milk
- 5 garlic cloves
- 1 lemon
- 3 tbsp olive oil
- Salt and pepper

How to make

1. Cook the spaghetti until al dente
2. Sauté garlic, pumpkin and mushrooms until soft
3. Add coconut milk and let it simmer until the pumpkin is tender
4. Season with salt, pepper and lemon juice
5. Toss in the cooked pasta and mix well
