Missing home is part of our story

Studying abroad can be exciting, but it can also feel lonely

Sometimes, it's the smallest things we miss the most: a home-cooked meal, a familiar voice, or simply having someone to talk to after a long day

Homesickness is more than just missing a place. It can affect how we feel, connect with others, and experience university life.

And it's okay to talk about it

It's okay to miss home

Far from home, not from help

The Christmas Table

Your seat is waiting

This Christmas, let's create a little piece of home together.

The Christmas Table is a multicultural cooking workshop bringing together 30–40 international students who are spending the holiday season in Australia.

Miss your family? Your hometown? Your favourite meal?

We'd love to hear your story

WHEN

Saturday 12 December 2026
[4PM - 8PM]

WHERE

Monash Caulfield Student Lounge

FIVE SIMPLE STEPS

How it works

1. Bring a memory
   Bring one ingredient that reminds you of home
2. Discover together
   Place your ingredient in a mystery box and join a multicultural group
3. Cook & connect
   Create a dish together using a surprise ingredient
4. Share your story
   Tell the stories and memories behind your food
5. Celebrate together
   Enjoy a shared Christmas meal with new friends.

TASTE OF HOME

Every dish has a story

Explore the memories, traditions and emotions connected to the food we love, through short videos and student stories.

Share your feelings

Join interactive conversations, Instagram polls and a Q&A session about homesickness and life away from home.

The Recipe Zine

Your recipes and personal stories will become part of a collective Recipe Zine, celebrating the diverse cultures and shared experiences of international students.

A recipe can remind us of home
A story can help us feel connected
